

THE MAKING OF MAGNIFICENCE WOMEN IN TRANSITION AND HOW TO NAVIGATE CHANGE

SARAH LEVITT

Life & Business Coach

As a successful entrepreneur of 15 years, Sarah Levitt knows what it takes to follow a dream and a plan and create something from nothing. She successfully grew a greenhouse operation from start-up into a thriving business that captured 40% of the market share for North Carolina. Along the way, she developed real-world expertise in strategic business development, operations, and leadership (as well as sweeping the greenhouse floor when that needed to be done). This hands-on, from-the-ground-up experience is her foundation for coaching entrepreneurs and executives to cultivate greater success in their businesses, as well as sustain themselves both personally and financially.

The May 24th luncheon will focus on the steps that need to be taken to tap into one's internal magnificence and how to look at adverse events through the "lens of opportunity" to cultivate a positive perspective.
